Crisis Management and the Changing Role of the State

CENTRAL EUROPEAN PHD WORKSHOP ON ECONOMIC POLICY AND CRISIS MANAGEMENT

20th-21st March 2014, Szeged, Hungary

Organized by

University of Szeged, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration

Doctoral School in Economics

in collaboration with the

Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Regional Committee in Szeged

The workshop is open for all PhD students from Central European doctoral schools, working in the fields of economic policy and crisis management. It offers specific training and provides an opportunity for interaction amongst senior and young researchers. We invite papers that aim at better understanding of the banking and capital markets, monetary policy, privatization and nationalization, international finance, FDI and TNCs, cohesion policy, environmental problems of transition, capitalism models as well as the European integration.

INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Barbara Blaszczyk (vice chairwoman, Center for Social and Economic Research, Poland)
Hunya Gábor (staff economist, Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies, Austria)
Éva Voszka (professor, University of Szeged, Hungary)
Katalin Botos (professor emerita, University of Szeged, Hungary)

SUBMISSION

All doctoral students who wish to participate in the PhD Workshop, and wish to present a paper must register and submit an abstract before 31st January, 2014 through the workshop website: www.eco.u-szeged.hu/phdworkshop. Registration is free of charge for all PhD students. Those who have an abstract accepted have to submit a complete paper before 7th March, 2014

Participation is free of charge and a limited number of accommodations are provided for presenters. The workshop is open to the public; however, due to place limitations, registration is required.

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACTS, PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Applicants must submit one-page long extended abstracts, with key words, but without tables or graphs, in plain text. Abstracts should focus on own contribution (research question, arguments, method and results).

Participants must submit complete papers in accordance with the abstract accepted. The body of the papers (the paper without the cover page and reference list) should be 10-12 pages long.

Participants give presentations based on the written papers. Presentations should be no longer than 15 minutes, leaving 15 minutes for discussion. Each paper will be assigned to a senior discussant and a junior discussant (one of the participating PhD students).

Based on the evaluation of the session chairs, some of the works presented at the PhD Workshop will be selected for publication in a refereed workshop proceeding under ISBN number.
