

Professor of the Year Award at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration proposal

The Students' Union of the University of Szeged Faculty of Economics and Business Administration hereby proposes the founding of the Professor of the Year Award at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration.

The personal scope of the proposal includes:

All personnel in a public servant status at the University of Szeged including people in other types of official work employment. The scope includes students studying at the Faculty with an active student status as well.

1. Conditions of the award

- a. The award may be given to professors doing extraordinary teaching work in officially announced courses at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration.
- b. The award is given once a year to a male and a female professor based on the proposal of the faculty's students
- c. The same person cannot receive the award more often than once every three years

2. Format of the award

- a. The award is given out jointly by the Students' Union and the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration. The award consists of a certificate and an object of aesthetic value.
- b. The cost of the certificate and the object (including its planning and creation) is covered by the Faculty.

3. The process of giving out the Professor of the Year at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration Award

- a. The Students' Union of the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration conducts a poll among the students of the faculty within the electronic study system at the end of each Spring semester about the Professor of the Year award. Everyone with active student status at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration are entitled to vote. Each voter may vote for one female and one male professor.

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

- b. The votes are counted by the Students' Union of the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration after which – by 1st June – a detailed proposal is presented to the Faculty Council in June about the prospective winners. The proposal shall be sent to the Dean's Office. Considering section 1, point "c" the award will be given to the female and male professors with the highest number of votes. In case of a draw, all prospective winners with the same number of votes shall be proposed. The final proposal shall indicate if section 1, point "c" applies in case of any prospective winners.
- c. In case of a draw, the winner is determined by a secret vote of the Faculty Council: the person with the most votes from the Council members will be awarded the prize. If the Council's secret vote also amounts to a draw, the winner shall be chosen at random.
- d. The faculty orders and pays for the certificates and the prize objects according to the Faculty Council's decision.
- e. The award shall be presented to the winner at the graduation ceremony or at another high prestige faculty event.
- f. The Dean's Office and the Students' Union are both required to keep a record of past winners of the award.
