

The internal system of score calculation for the National Higher Education Scholarship at the SZTE Faculty of Economics

I. Studies

1. Study average: the arithmetic mean of the weighted credit average of two semesters to two decimal places. Only the grades recorded in the Electronic Study System by the exact time of the application's evaluation shall be taken into consideration.

The final score shall be determined as follows:

(average calculated in the above detailed manner - 4,5) * 100

maximum: 50 points

2. Scores awarded for accredited language certificates recorded in the Electronic Study System.

C level proficient 5 points

C level intermediate with professional specialisation) 4 points

C level intermediate 3 points

B level 2 points

A level 1 point

maximum: 10 point

I. altogether maximum: 60 points

II: Certified professional activities in the time period relevant for the evaluation of the application

Documented, certified research, publication maximum: 5 points

OTDK (National Scientific Students' Associations Conference)

1st place: 10 points

2nd place: 8 points

3rd place and special prize: 6 points

Simple participation: 4 pont involvement in other, professional or academic competitions (documented and certified)

1st place: 5 points

2nd place: 4 points

3rd place and special prize: 3 points

Simple participation: 2 points holding a teacher's assistant position:

2 semesters: 10 points

1 semester: 5 points

II. Altogether maximum: 30 points

I. Certified sporting, public or other activities in the time period relevant for the evaluation of the application certified involvement in a student organisation maximum: 5 points

an outstanding sporting or cultural achievement (certified) maximum: 5 points

III. Altogether maximum: 10 points but no more than 10% of the student's overall score.

I. + II. + III. altogether maximum: 100 points

In the event of a draw the higher Study score (Section I.) shall be preferred. If this is also a draw then the study average shall be used to create the final ranking.